

Privacy Policy

We do not disclose any non-public personal information about our policyholders or claimants to any third parties except as is permitted by law. Any such disclosures are made for the purpose of transacting the business of your insurance coverage or your claim. We do not sell or market your non-public personal information.

We collect non-public personal information about you from a variety of sources. The information we collect allows us to properly underwrite or rate your insurance policy and to complete the other transactions incidental to your insurance policy. Some sources of information include but are not limited to:

- Information we receive from you on applications or other forms
- Information about your transactions with us, our affiliates, or others
- Information we receive from a consumer reporting agency
- Driver information from the state motor vehicle departments
- Medical or financial information

We do not disclose any non-public personal information about our policyholders except as permitted by law. In some cases this information may be disclosed to third parties without your authorization. These disclosures may include those made to your insurance company, appraisers, adjusters, insurance regulators, and/or your mortgage lender or lien holder. It is the agency's normal procedure that your policy could be remarketed for purposes of renewing or replacing it. We do not sell our customer lists.
